Sunset High School

Sunset, Louisiana
Volume XI

PUBLISHED BY THE ANNUAL STAFF OF
SUNSET HIGH SCHOOL

Linda Booty, Editor

An ordinary school day begins early for most students at Sunset High. The majority of them come to school via buses. Others walk or come in cars or by bicycle. The important thing is that they do come. Without them the school could not exist, for they are the purpose behind the whole system of education. They possess the abilities and energies which await the development offered by the fascinating institution called a school.

Just Another Day

These classes and halls are seldom seen as they are pictured above. They serve no purpose until one ingredient is added to the recipe, a human being with the ability to think, learn, and reason. Then these empty halls and classrooms become alive with enthusiasm, hope, and endeavor.

These are the students. They, and scores of others like them, have spent the greater part of their lives in school. Here they have acquired knowledge and experiences in the classrooms, in organizations, in activities, in athletics, and in just being with each other. Friendships are formed which will never be broken. Memories are gained which time could never dull. Lessons are learned in co-operation, citizenship, initiative, and dependability.

At Sunset High

When the final bell rings, the campus slowly becomes deserted, but a school does not remain deserted very long. Soon it will be alive again with students, teachers, and personnel, whose aim is the same--to make Sunset High a school they all can be proud of.

Sunset Principal Sees School Complete Record Year

Mr. Duos examines grade cards.

Many school transactions are made by phone.

Office workers, like Linda Smith, aid in numerous tasks.

Mr. Ferdie Duos, Sunset High School principal, is in his thirteenth year at Sunset High in this capacity. Perhaps the number thirteen has proved to be a lucky one for Mr. Duos, for this year has been a record year at Sunset High. Enrollment has increased over past years and honors reaped by the school have also increased. New and expanded programs have also been successful.

English Is Part of All Subjects Because It Is the Basis of Communication

English is possibly the most important subject in our school curriculum, for without it we would have a very poor system of communication. The importance of English should be stressed to its fullest extent. Along with English grammar, students are exposed to two of the greatest motivation forces-- poetry and literature.

MRS. LOUELLA DOMENGEAUX,
Teacher of English

Mrs. Domengeaux's English IV class worked at their own speed in completing a special College Preparatory English Workbook.

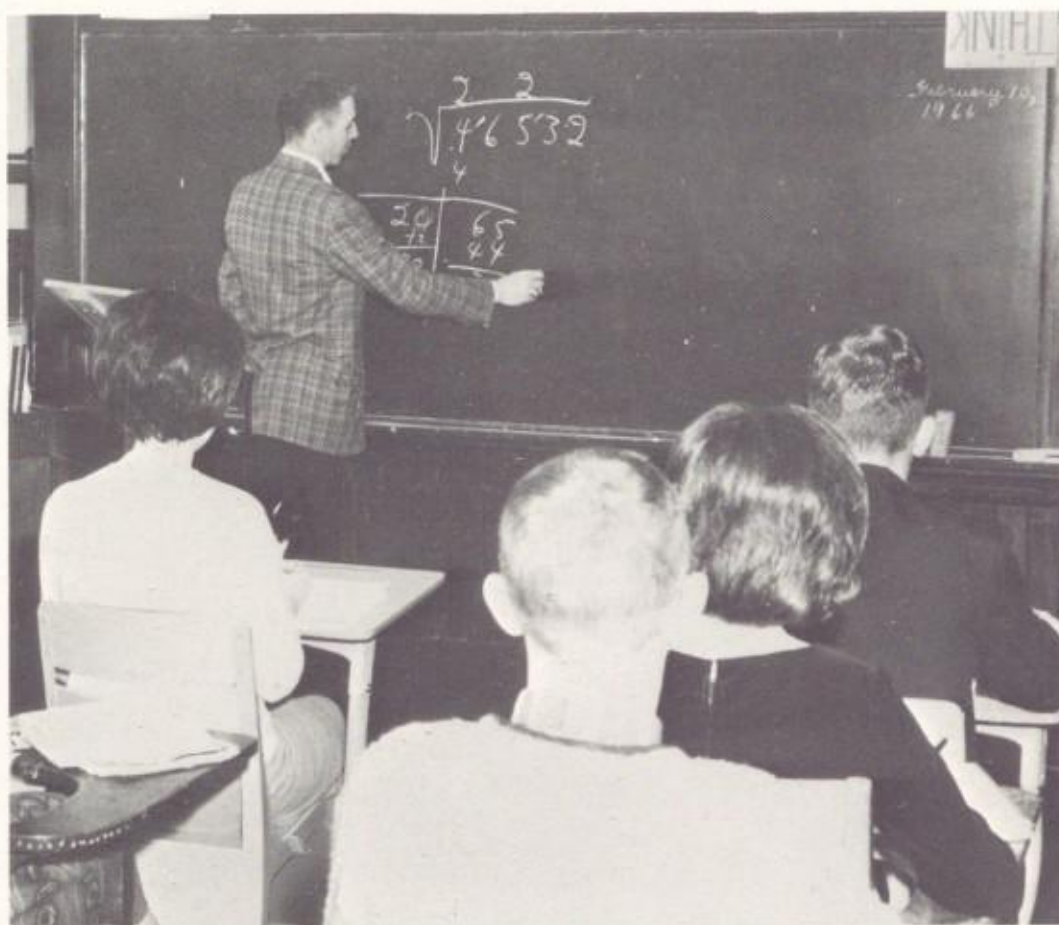

The Future Offers Many Opportunities in the Mathematics Field

With more and more emphasis in our world today on data processing, computer programming, and other relatively new fields, a student's knowledge of mathematics is of the greatest importance. Even if a student does not enter one of these fields, the power of concentration and ability to reason gained from studying mathematics will be invaluable.

The Algebra II students display their interest in the graph Mr. Joseph Terracina explains. Although Mr. Terracina is a new teacher at Sunset High, he shows interest in all the school's activities.

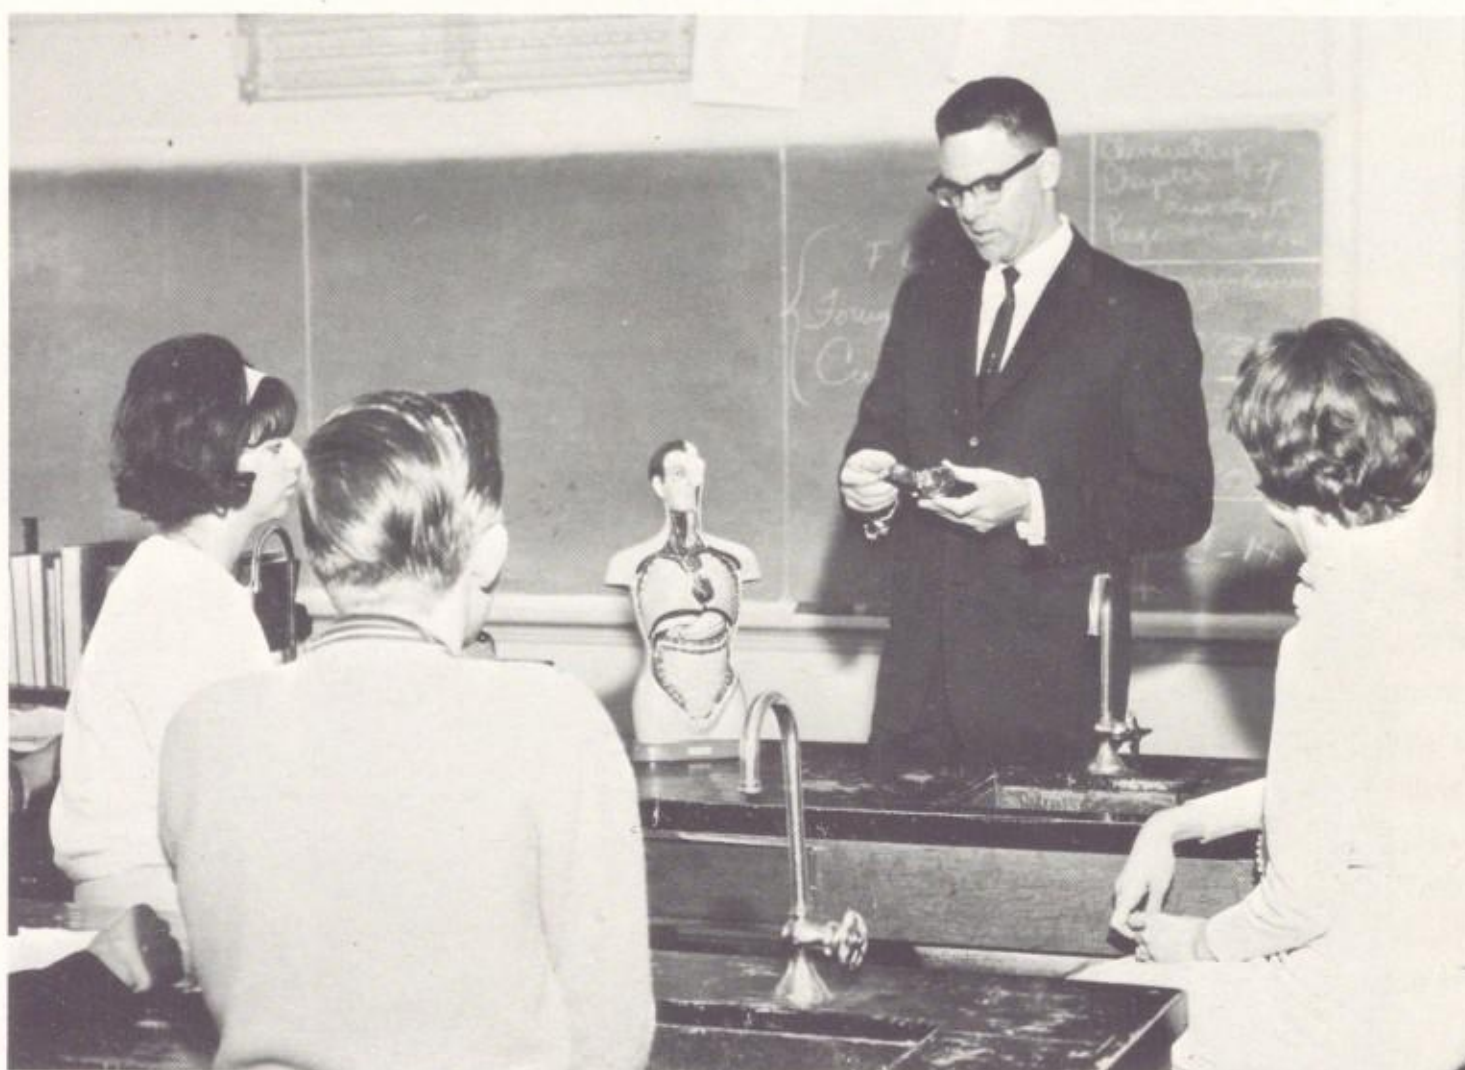

Mr. Hugh Soileau, teacher of senior math, explains the square root process to his students. These and other formulas are the basis for solving many such problems. By using their knowledge of math, the students are able to derive the solutions to many everyday problems.

The Mysteries of Science Are Explored at Sunset High

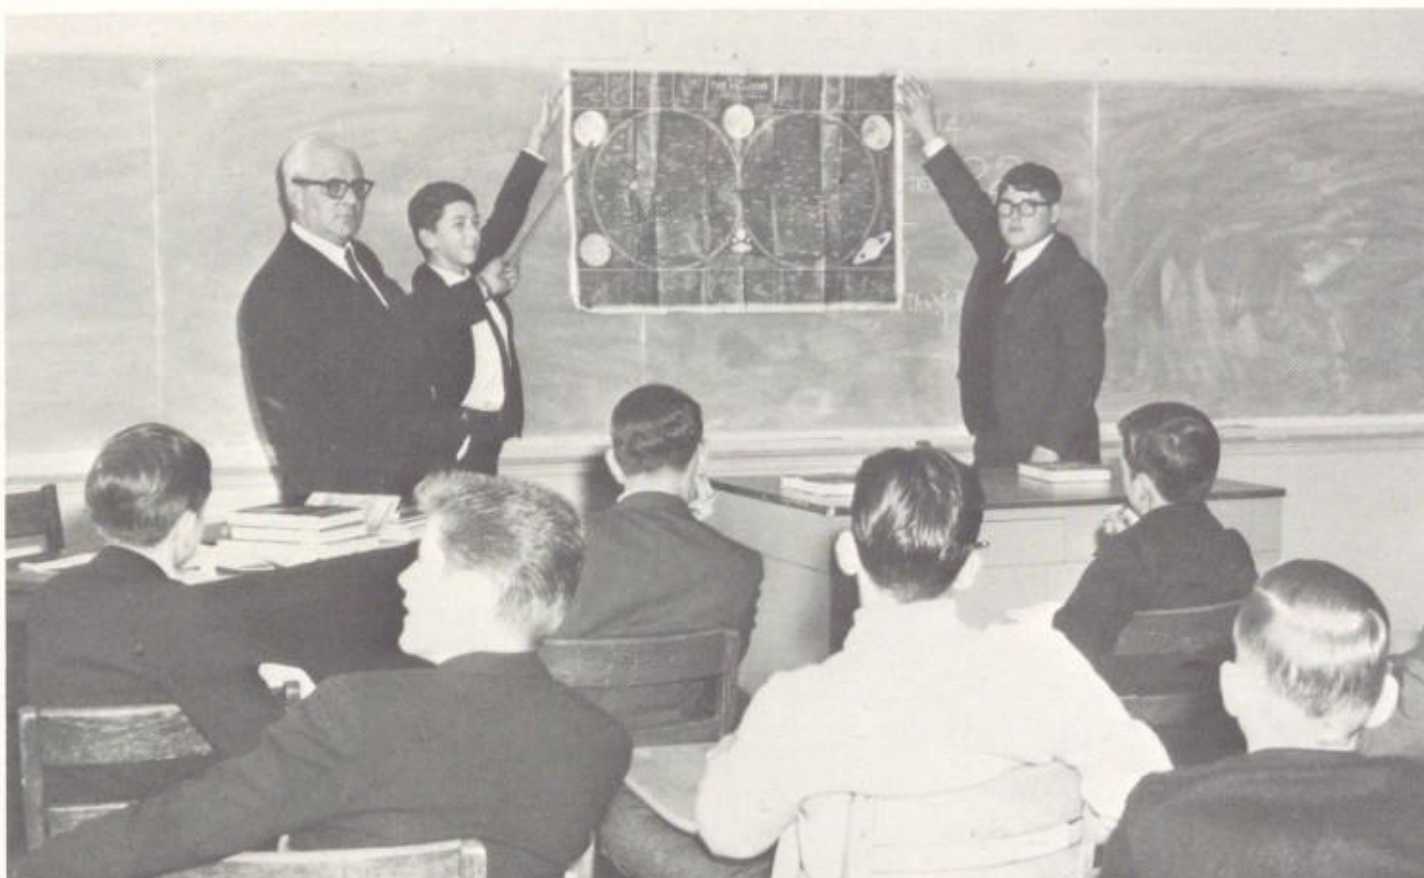

Mr. Sylvan D'Avy's chemistry students explore new scientific developments by performing experiments. These pupils see the mysteries of science as a part of their everyday lives.

The biology class listens attentively as Mr. D'Avy displays his knowledge of the human anatomy.

General Science Students Study Basic Astronomy

Mr. Jack DelBueno, teacher of general science, explains that the future of the world relies upon the development and achievements of today's youth in the scientific field.

Practice Sets Give Business Students First-Hand Experience

Mrs. Sylvan D'Avy undertakes the training of students in business procedures. These office practice students are demonstrating their ability in filing.

Sunset High Students Are Adequately Trained for the Business World

The business subjects at Sunset High School are widely stressed. These subjects range from general business to typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, and office practice. They prepare students for the ever-growing business world which they will possibly be entering in the near future.

Mrs. Sylvan D'Avy's students are steadily advancing toward their places in an actual business. These students are encountering a variety of new experiences which will help them in later years.

Mrs. Betty Pellerin explains the rather complicated process known in our country as preparation of income tax forms.

Advancement of Social Studies and Citizenship

Panel discussion is part of the regular classroom training in U. S. History. These students, along with the class, are acquiring knowledge of history, government, and international affairs.

Mrs. Oscar Olivier, teacher of physical education, U. S. History, and Spanish has contributed much to Sunset High School.

She centers learning around history because through its study, one learns how our nation began and how it progressed to world leadership.

Rights and Responsibilities Are Dual Goals of Government Study

Mr. Earl Guilbeau instructs his students in civics, the study of the structure of our present-day government. Mr. Guilbeau and his students explore the realm of our government with the aim of learning the privileges and responsibilities involved in being a good American citizen.

French Students Aided by Language Laboratory

Mr. Ferdinand Iseringhausen teaches his French students that French is a living language and not merely a written exercise in grammar. The use of tapes aids students in achieving this goal.

Foreign Language Electives

Acquaint Students With Faraway Places

Spanish dances are part of Mrs. Olivier's schedule as a class project. Aside from dances, these students take part in games, conversations, songs, recitation, and various other activities.

Mr. Ferdinand Iseringhausen's French students review a conversation which stresses their ability to actually speak the language they have learned.

Homemakers and Agriculturists of Tomorrow

Mrs. Myrtle Deranger displays a chart of carbohydrates, sugars, and starches.

Home economics has been one of the basic studies throughout past years and will continue to be in the future. The home economics girls study material necessary to begin their educations as future homemakers, dietitians, and the like.

Mr. James Lemaire, instructor of agriculture, advises his future farmers of the importance of new scientific methods of farming. Through field trips and class and individual projects in the ag shop, the boys are trained to put their knowledge to valuable use in the future.

The World of Books and the Sound of Music

Miss Alice Clay, Librarian at Sunset High School, aids students in the library in finding necessary information on various topics. Their school work and outside activities acquaint them with their need for books. To recognize the importance of books, National Library Week and Book Week are observed annually.

Sunset High School band director and chorus instructor is Mr. Earl J. Caillouet. Here he demonstrates his ability on the autoharp, a very difficult instrument to play. His talents are of an increasing variety.

Mr. Caillouet has shown increasing school spirit by his band performing at the pep rallies and football games.

The Physical Fitness Program at Sunset High

Along with physical activities, Mrs. Olivier teaches health as a part of the overall program she sponsors. These girls acquire facts of medical knowledge, personality, character, etc. which will be of great importance now and in the future.

These physical education boys are demonstrating football as one part of their strengthening activities. They also participate in other physical actions, such as exercising and sports - baseball, basketball, and football.

The Sunset High Personnel--janitors, bus drivers, lunch room workers, and supervisor of the Food Preservation Center--increase the school's efficiency. They handle tasks which aid in the maintenance functions of the school, allowing faculty and students to concentrate their energies on education.

"Neither rain nor sleet nor snow" could apply to our bus drivers as well as to the postman.

John Gautreaux supervises the Food Preservation Center.

Homecoming 1965 was a truly spirited event, with the entire student body taking part in Homecoming Week. The week was climaxed on October 29 by a parade, game, and coronation. Half-time of the exciting football game against Port Barre brought the announcement of the Homecoming Queen, Karen Fontenot. The Queen and her court were then honored at a coronation and dance.

Yule Dance

A Christmas Ball, sponsored by the Student Council, was held on Dec. 23, 1965, in the school gym. The gym had been transformed into a winter wonderland. The lovely girls on the court were presented. Mr. Ferdinand Iseringhausen, Student Council sponsor, crowned Miss Barbara Venable Miss Merry Christmas. Her runner-up, Miss Marvel Guidry, was crowned Miss Happy New Year. All the proceeds from the dance were donated to the Sunset High School Band Department.

Most Intelligent

Good study habits and ability to apply facts to everyday problems have helped Linda Booty and Darrel Savoie in receiving this title.

Best Looking

Good grooming as well as naturally attractive features account for Sunset High's choice of Terry Whittington and Jerry Domengeaux as Best Looking.

Best Dressed

Cheryl Richard and Larry Quebedeaux are always neat, well-groomed, and stylishly, as well as appropriately, dressed. In this category they're tops at Sunset High.

Most Likely to Succeed

Judy Duplechin and Darrel Savoie, as a result of their determination and initiative, will most likely become prominent and successful citizens.

Most Popular

Barbara Venable and Jimmy Burleigh are friendly and sociable people, and as a result, they are most popular in the eyes of Sunset High students.

Best Dancers

Cheryl Miller and Kenny Landry can readily catch on to any beat and dance to it in a most fitting way. Sunset High claims them as its best dancers.

Best Personality

A friendly smile, a bit of humor, and a gregarious nature make up the lively personalities of Terry Whittington and Rodney Kidder.

Most Talented

Anna Louise Guidry and Darrel Smith have much experience and skill in playing a wide variety of musical instruments. Their pleasant singing voices are also an asset to them.

Most Cooperative

Elaine Prejean and Terry Cormier are known for their outstanding trait of being able to work with others successfully.

Most Courteous

Refined manners and a genuine interest in the welfare of others are most fitting descriptions of Judy Duplechin and Patrick Doucet.

Wittiest

Dianne Stelly and Kenny Landry, because of their sense of humor and their ability to bring a smile to anyone's face, have been chosen wittiest.

Most Athletic

Grace Lavergne and Jimmy Burleigh have been selected Most Athletic. Physical coordination, hard practice, and good sportsmanship characterize this pair.

Jimmy Burleigh's agility as a Halfback helped him to win the Best-All-Around Athlete award.

The 1966 Lions football team provided its fans with a truly exciting season. The team won three games, lost six, and tied one.

The season began with a spirit-boosting win over Delcambre, 15-7. The next win came two weeks later against district foe Mamou. Four losses in a row faced the team when they met Port Barre in a Homecoming night contest. The teams fought to a 7-7 tie. The Lions wrapped up the season in fine style two weeks later as they rolled over Sacred Heart of Ville Platte 31-0. The Lions are coached by Earl Guilbeau and Hugh Soileau.

Kenny Landry rushes to catch a speedy ball carrier as one of his teammates blocks out approaching opponents.

Mike Whatley attempts a pass reception in Eunice.

Running room is scarce for this back as he is surrounded by a host of Lions.

Mighty Lions Add More Trophies

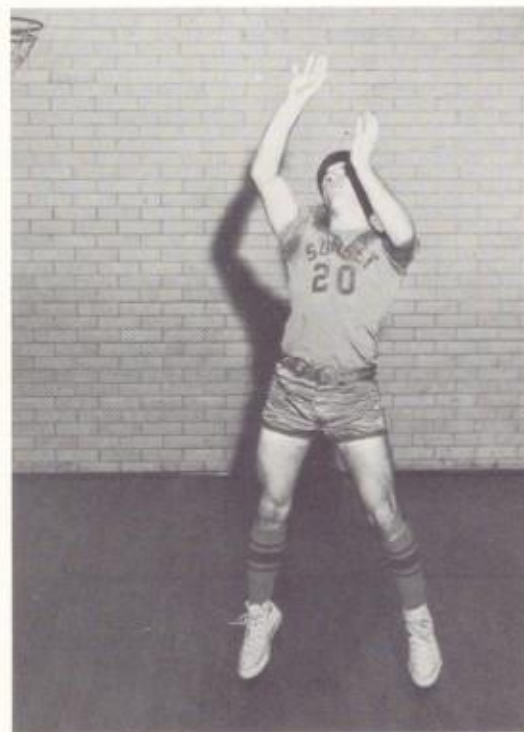

The 1965-66 basketball squad members are (top left) Coach Hugh Soileau, Dwayne Richard, Keith Myers, Darrel Savoie, Tommy Burleigh, Robert Duos, Mike Whatley, Jimmy Burleigh, Larry Lagrange, Eric Manuel, Mike LeFeau, Malcolm Comeaux, Dale Laneaux, (Bottom left) Mike "Husky" Bellemin, Ronnie Smith, Gerald Courville, Barney Dejean, Dwayne "Dinky" Burleigh, and O. J. Thibodeaux.

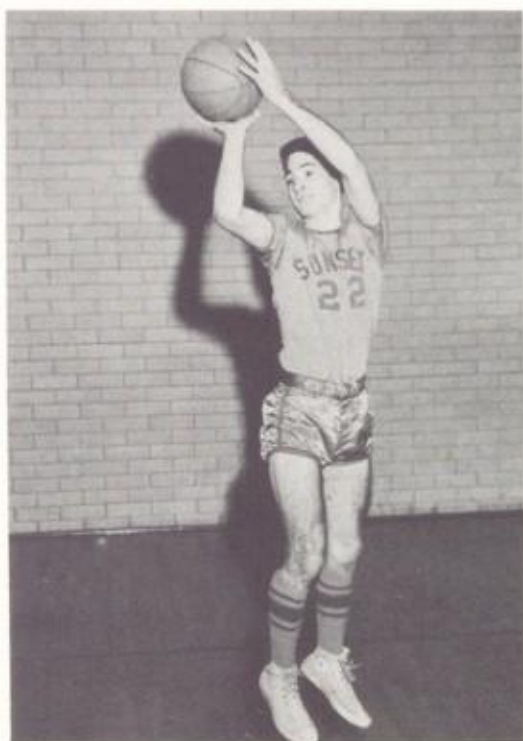

Guided by the leadership of Coach Hugh Soileau, the mighty Lions have added three trophies to their credit for the three years of coaching by Coach Hugh Soileau. The Lions added two of these trophies this year. They received them in the Port Barre High School Tournament and the Breaux Bridge High School Tournament.

FHA Studies Acadian Culture

Awards at the Mother-Daughter Banquet were presented to Norma Breau, Girl of the Year; Elaine Arceneaux, Crisco Award; and Sandra Hebert, Freshman Award.

The 1965-66 FHA members devoted their time to studying the customs of their ancestors by discussions at meetings, by exhibits of Acadian clothing and tools, and by a memorable visit to historic Cretien Point. At the 5th annual Mother-Daughter Banquet, the theme, "Our Acadian Heritage" was emphasized by the decorations and the entertainment. Dean Thomas J. Arceneaux of USL reviewed various facts about the Acadians.

Pep Squad Boosts Spirit

With the help of thirty-nine lively girls, school spirit at Sunset High was boosted to a peak. The 1965-66 Pep Squad participated in pep rallies and the Homecoming parade and at all home football games joined with the band in forming an honor guard. The squad would like to thank Miss Alice Clay, their sponsor, who devoted so much time and energy to making the squad a success.

Beta Promotes Scholarship

The Beta Club, which is an honor organization for students maintaining an overall "B" average, sponsored a teacher appreciation program this year and also had a Christmas assembly for tapping of its new members. Club sponsor is Mr. Earl Caillouet.

FBLA Has New Sponsor

With the opening of school came a new sponsor for the FBLA. The club welcomed Mrs. Sylvan Davy as their new advisor. At the first meeting the officers for 1965-66 were installed, and at a later meeting new members were initiated into the organization.

During the month of April, FBLA sponsored "Dress Right Week." The club tried to encourage the student body to continue their proper mode of dress. On Friday, May 13, the club held the second annual Powder Puff Football Game. The teams were comprised of our high school girls. The teams jointly chose a court. Jimmy Burleigh was crowned Powder Puff King at halftime ceremonies of the game, and Jerry Domengeaux was crowned Duke.

The 1965-66 officers were Karen Fontenot, president; Darrell Savoie, vice president; Carmen DeJean, secretary; Linda Booty, corresponding secretary; Corliss Boudreaux, treasurer; Terry Whittington, reporter; Jimmy Sonnier, parliamentarian; Jerry Domengeaux, photographer; Susan Horaist and Barbara Venable, historian; Judy Menard and Thelma Savoie, songleaders; and Cheryl Miller, pianist.

Future Farmers Enjoy Busy Year

Award Winners at Father-Son Banquet

The Future Farmers of Sunset High enjoyed a very busy year. In May of last year, the chapter elected officers for the coming year. These were Jimmy Sonnier, president; Carroll Marks, vice-president; Larry Lagrange, secretary; Rodney Kidder, treasurer; George Hoffpauir, reporter; and Pat Doucet, sentinel. Larry Lagrange, Jimmy Sonnier, Carroll Marks, Pat Doucet, and Mr. James Lemaire, advisor, attended Leadership Conference in Bunkie during June. Also in June, Larry Lagrange, Jimmy Sonnier, and Mr. Lemaire attended the State Convention in Alexandria. At the end of October the club sponsored a "Male Beauty Contest." The annual Father-Son Banquet was held in April.

Judge Lesley Gardiner was guest speaker at the Father-Son Banquet.

Junior ag. students gained practical experience in the shop.

Culture Club Has Unforgettable Year

Members enjoyed a Christmas tea at Mrs. Olivier's Home.

The Culture Club had a most rewarding year. Large groups attended the concert of the Righteous Brothers, Verdi's "La Traviata," "Brigadoon," and the plays "Death Takes a Holiday," "Pullman Car Hiawatha," and "The Second Shepherd's Play." Highlight of the year was a tour of New Orleans, climaxed by attendance at the opera "Andrea Chenier."

On May 10, 1966, the Culture Club presented to the public "An Evening of Plays." These were "Antic Spring," "Finder's Keepers," and "Ay de Mi Corázon" Money realized from the plays and dues was spent for books donated to the Sunset High library.

Some students attended other productions: "USA," "Murder in the Cathedral," the National Band of New Zealand and the Maori dancers.

At one regular meeting members broadened their knowledge of art.

Decorating the goal posts was part of the fun.

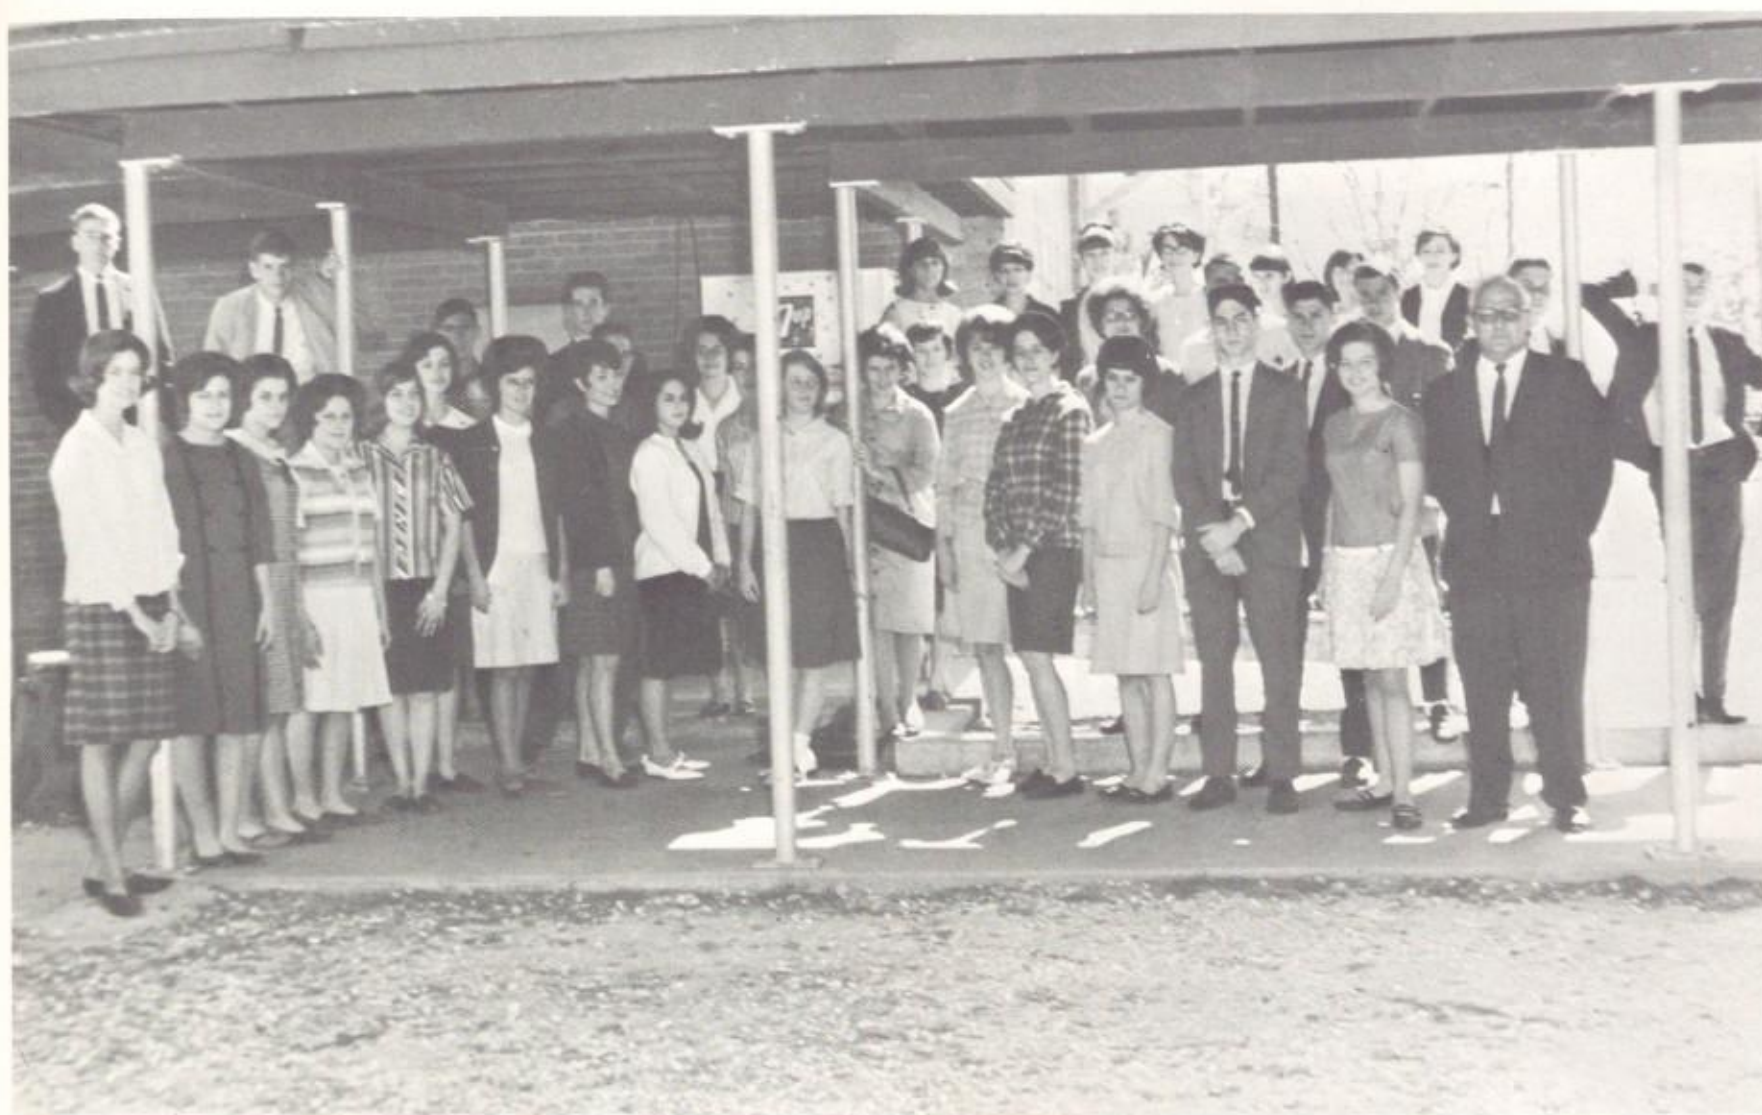

Cheerleaders Win Four Ribbons at Northwestern

Cheerleaders pose at camp with the ribbons they won.

The 1965-66 cheerleaders are Linda Mouille, head cheerleader, Linda Booty, Karen Fontenot, Pat Taylor, Karleen Domengeaux, and Terry Whittington. After they were chosen, the cheerleaders began preparation for Cheerleader Camp at Northwestern. In competition there, they received one second-place ribbon, two third-place ribbons, and an honorable mention. With the guidance of their sponsor, Mrs. Louella Domengeaux, the energetic group of cheerleaders proved a large factor in the spirit behind the "Mighty Lions" at pep rallies and football games. For three of our cheerleaders this was their last year to cheer for the "Mighty Lions," but they will always treasure memories that can never be forgotten.

The Lion's Tale Staff

The annual staff at Sunset High School is an organization that works very long and diligently to publish the yearbook that you are now enjoying. The members prepare pages and sell ads to various business places in Sunset, Opelousas, and Lafayette.

It is not a simple task, as every staff member knows, to publish this yearbook. The staff hopes that you enjoy it every time that it is opened in the future.

Music Department Avidly Begins Uniform Drive

The band and chorus of Sunset High always brighten the year with their performances and activities. But this year these activities have been increased in an all-out campaign to raise money for new band uniforms. These activities included a concert by the chorus of Franklin High School, a square dance exhibition sponsored by the seventh grade, and a Christmas dance sponsored by the Student Council. In addition to this the annual Christmas and Spring concerts were presented, and music students sold candy. Naturally, the band helped support the Lions at football games and pep rallies, and the chorus entertained at school functions including the Miss Sunset contest and the Athletic Banquet. Music director is Mr. Earl Caillouet.

During their second year as a combined club, the French and Spanish classes of the Foreign Language Club had as their major activity the Foreign Language Festival at U. S. L. Judy Comeaux, Keith Myers, and Donald Lavergne received Superior ratings in French. The French skit also received a Superior rating. The cast of "Rosalie" included Linda Booty, Linda Mouille, and Lois Prejean. At "An Evening of Plays" sponsored by the Culture Club, the Spanish class presented "Ay de Mi Corazon!" The cast of this play included Donald Lavergne, Larry Babineaux, Sammy Royer, Glenda Miller, Elward Landry, and Barbara Daigle.

4-H Club Rates Superior in Parish

Officers of Sunset's superior-rated 4-H Club are Ronnie Horaist, president; Charla Guidry, vice-president; Judy Comeaux, secretary; Mary Leger, treasurer; Jackie Miller, reporter; Brenda Hession, recreation leader; Jeanette Burleigh, representative.

These Also Serve

This page is dedicated to several groups who have served the school in various ways throughout the year with little or no recognition.

Our town businessmen support the school in various ways. Here a group of them are shown at a luncheon given for them.

Pressbox announcers who brought play-by-play reports of home football games were Tommy Burleigh and Larry Hebert.

Little Kénny and the Rythmakers played for many school dances and often played without charge for activities during the day.

Before school starts each day students have the opportunity to talk about the day before.

These freshman boys take time out to discuss world problems.

The noon break offers a good time to relax.

Elementary students fill the school yard at each recess.

The origin of the town of Sunset is a colorful story. When the people of Grand Coteau objected to the Southern Pacific Railroad's proposal that a branch of their railroad run through the town, because of fear of yellow fever and other diseases they thought it would bring, Mr. Napoleon Robin donated land in Sunset to the company. Sunset's main street, Napoleon Avenue, was named for him. Legend holds that the town was so named because it was often described as "the place where the sun sets."

Grand Coteau, a rambling, oak-shaded town of 1165 people, is the home of the Academy of Sacred Heart, a girls' school, and the St. Charles College, a Jesuit school. It is the location of the Louisiana Champion Bald Cypress tree which measures 23 feet, 11 inches in circumference. It is being entered in national competition as the largest bald cypress in the nation. The office of the Housing Authority of South Landry, a low-rent housing project, is located in Grand Coteau with Mr. Oscar Marks as executive director. The Housing Authority with 28 housing units ready for rent covers a four-town area consisting of Sunset, Arnouldville, Grand Coteau and Cankton.

LINDA BOOTY, Editor

Sunset, Louisiana
June 5, 1966

Dear Students and Fellow Graduates,

As I put the finishing touches on this yearbook, I could not help but utter a small prayer that somehow, someday, it will bring joy to each person whose high school days are recorded within its covers. We have no way of knowing what tomorrow brings, but we will always have these "Moments to Remember."

Publishing a yearbook is not an easy task, in fact, at some times it is quite an exasperating task. This year, we have had a new publishing company, two new sponsors, and a new editor, but somehow we have managed to reach this point. I would like to thank the staff's sponsors, Mrs. Pellerin and Mr. Jack, the staff officers, committees, and each member for their efforts and co-operation in preparing layouts, taking pictures, selling ads, and a multitude of other jobs.

Again, I hope that you enjoy this book, now and in years to come, for it is the story of each student at Sunset High.

Sincerely,

Linda Gail Booty
